PROFILE

I started out as a game artist and got hooked on the technology behind it. Now I prefer to build a product entirely myself and put it live. Alongside my studies I run my own hosting platform and work on AI tooling for a marketing agency.

EXPERIENCE

AI and automation developer

2026 to now

Go to Guy • marketing agency

- Builds an AI bridge that connects the team's daily systems: mail, calendar, time tracking and CRM.
- Agents that take over routine work, such as drafting quotes and checking hours.
- A dashboard built for the whole team.

Founder and developer

2026 to now

HypHosting • own company

- Commercial Minecraft hosting platform with its own website and a customer panel with a live console.
- Payments and subscriptions through Mollie.
- Every server runs in its own Docker container.
- Native iOS app (SwiftUI).

Webshop for a client

2026

Louisa Edelstenen • freelance, client

- Catalogue and a custom admin panel.
- Checkout through Stripe.
- Shipping labels that print themselves via a Raspberry Pi.
